

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Date: November 4, 2019

Contact: (414) 308-2680; info@fieldsformke.com

MILWAUKEE COUNTY SUPERVISOR TONY STASKUNAS ENDORSES JASON FIELDS FOR COMPTROLLER

Current board member and former Assembly colleague says Fields is a problem solver

MILWAUKEE - Jason Fields, current state lawmaker and candidate for Milwaukee Comptroller, today announced the support of Milwaukee County Supervisor Tony Staskunas:

Staskunas stated, "I had the opportunity to work closely with Jason Fields in the State Assembly. He is a pragmatic problem solver and is able to work with people of all political backgrounds, always remaining focused on producing results and working for his constituents. He will make a great City of Milwaukee Comptroller."

"Tony Staskunas is a good friend and I'm proud to have earned his support in the campaign to be Milwaukee's next chief financial officer. His service to our state as a member of the Legislature and now to the people of Milwaukee County shows his dedication to the issues and to the meaning of public service. I look forward to our continued friendship and working with him as Comptroller," added Fields.

###

Jason Fields, CCRS, CFEI, is a current member of the Wisconsin State Assembly, a certified financial instructor, and founder and managing director of a venture capital fund in Milwaukee. He is a past chairman of the Assembly Committee on Financial Institutions and current ranking member of the Committee on Community Development. He and his wife, La Tasha Fields, are proud residents of Milwaukee's Wyrick Park neighborhood. The primary election will be held Tuesday, February 18 and the general election Tuesday, April 7, 2020. To learn more about Jason, visit www.fieldsformke.com