

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Wisconsin Muslim Civic Alliance Congratulates Endorsed Winners in April 1st Election

Wisconsin — The Wisconsin Muslim Civic Alliance (WMCA) proudly congratulates a remarkable group of endorsed candidates who secured victories in the April 1, 2025 election. These wins represent a powerful step forward for inclusive, community-driven leadership across Wisconsin.

“We’re thrilled to see so many of our endorsed candidates succeed,” said Fauzia Qureshi, Executive Director of WMCA. “Their victories are a testament to the strength of grassroots organizing, civic engagement, and the increasing impact of Muslim and allied voices in public service.”

WMCA-Endorsed Winners:

Statewide Offices

- ✓ Susan Crawford – Wisconsin Supreme Court Justice
- ✓ Jill Underly – Superintendent of Public Instruction

Milwaukee County

- ✓ Nabil A. Salous – Alder, Franklin District 5
- ✓ Alex Brower – Alder, Milwaukee District 3
- ✓ Brianna Allen Kaiser – Oak Creek/Franklin School Board
- ✓ Dr. James Ferguson II – MPS School District 4
- ✓ Christopher Bauer – Wauwatosa School Board

Waukesha County

- ✓ Enrique Camacho – Alder, Waukesha District 15
- ✓ Wes Sylla – Elmbrook School Board

Dane County

- ✓ Sean O'Brien – Alder, Madison District 16

Kenosha County

- ✓ Carl Bryan – Kenosha Unified School Board

Brown County

- ✓ Jeanette Knill – Green Bay School Board

Rock County

- ✓ Ryan Jayne – Evansville School Board

La Crosse County

- ✓ Aron Newberry – Alder, La Crosse District 9
- ✓ Lisa D. Weston – Alder, La Crosse District 12

Winnebago County

- ✓ Gordon Hintz – Winnebago County Executive
- ✓ Eric Fredrickson – Neenah Joint School Board
- ✓ Molly Smiltneek – Oshkosh School Board

WMCA thanks all the candidates who ran for office and all voters who showed up to make their voices heard. We remain committed to strengthening democracy by amplifying the voices and needs of Wisconsin's Muslim communities through advocacy, engagement, and leadership.

For more information about WMCA's work and endorsed candidates, visit www.wmcalliance.org.

Media Contact:

Press@wmcalliance.org

About WMCA

The Wisconsin Muslim Civic Alliance (WMCA) is dedicated to empowering and mobilizing Wisconsin's Muslim communities through civic engagement, advocacy, and cultural enrichment.